

Join Us for Secondary Science of Reading!

ABOUT THIS OPPORTUNITY

In partnership with TNTP, ESU 16 is excited to provide this course that targets our 6-12 literacy educators to gain the knowledge and skills needed to meet the needs of students with gaps in their ELA instruction using evidence-based instructional practices. There are TWO parts of this opportunity:

1 ASYNCHRONOUS COURSE OUTLINE

The course is broken into six self-paced, asynchronous modules, delivered via Blackboard. It is designed for 4-12th grade educators and should take approximately 15-20 hours to complete.

1. Literacy for All: Strong Instruction for Secondary Learners
2. Building a Foundation: Skills for Secondary Students
3. Making Sense of Complex Text
4. Building Knowledge & Vocabulary Through Text
5. Evidence-Based Discussion and Writing
6. HQIM: The Cornerstone of Strong Literacy Instruction

Course Launch Date: June 4, 2026

2 CULMINATING CAPSTONE

TNTP will facilitate a 2-part in-person capstone session that will center collaboration and community with educators across ESU 16 to discuss applications and learning from the course.
